TDBP Privacy Notice

Last updated: February 3, 2026

The Turkish Dutch Business Platform ("TDBP" or "Platform") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Notice will inform you on how we collect, process and share your personal data and inform you about your rights.

1. Important Information and Who We Are

Scope:
This Privacy Notice applies to all natural persons including directors, representatives of TDBP members, and all natural person participants.

Collection of Data:
This Privacy Notice aims to give you information on how TDBP collects and processes any data you may provide directly to us, either through your use of this website or any other medium, when you register for and participate in an event or other initiatives or when you sign up to our newsletter as a natural person participant of TDBP ("Participant") or as the director or representative of a company or a branch of a TDBP member or as the director or representative of a company or a branch you become the official representative of a TDBP member ("Representative"). As the processing of your data listed in this Privacy Notice takes place in many different business processes, it is quite possible that you will not always be personally affected by such processing. While we primarily collect personal data directly from you, in limited cases, we may receive personal data from member organizations or representatives in connection with membership and participation. If you provide us with personal data of third parties, you confirm that you have obtained the necessary authorization to share such data with TDBP and that the individuals concerned have been informed of this Privacy Notice, where applicable by law.

Controller:
TDBP is the data controller and responsible for your personal data. If you have any questions about this Privacy Notice, please contact us using the details set out below in Section 8.

2. The Data We Collect About You

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you which we have grouped together follows:

- Identity Data: in particular title, full name, and where required by law (e.g. for directors of TDBP members) identification data such as passport or national identification details, date and place of birth, gender, profession related data such as job title and company name, and similar data.

- Statistical and analytical evaluations in relation to membership, participation rate to events, activities or other initiatives, newsletters and all external communication with stakeholders, etc.
- Compliance, investigations, and legal proceedings including ensuring compliance with contractual and legal obligations, investigation, and prosecution of violations of law, internal regulations and other misconduct, including examination of complaints, reports and objections, participation in official investigations and proceedings, the assertion, exercise or defense of legal claims of any kind.

4. Our Third-Party Service Providers and Cross-Border Transfers

We may share personal data with carefully selected third-party service providers (suppliers) who support our activities, such as IT hosting, cloud services and email communication, event management, customer relationship management, and financial administration services such as accounting. Personal data may also be shared with banks and payment service providers for the processing of membership fees, event payments, and other financial transactions. In addition, personal data may be disclosed to public authorities, courts, notaries, regulators, competent authorities or legal advisors where required by law or necessary to establish, exercise, or defend legal claims.We protect your personal data through contractual agreements we have with our service providers. If your personal data is disclosed to a recipient outside of the EU or EEA, the protection of your personal data is ensured with the legally prescribed precautions such as the conclusion of contractual agreement Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs) and appropriate technical and organizational measures.

5. Our IT Infrastructure and Data Security

Our IT infrastructure is provided through cloud services operated by Hostinger, where personal data is hosted in Germany and protected by appropriate technical and organizational measures. We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorized way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those who work for TDBP, contractors and other third parties who have a business need-to-know.

6. Retention Period of Your Data

We retain your personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, including legal, statutory, and contractual obligations. Retention periods vary depending on the type of data and processing activity; once the applicable retention period expires, your personal data will be securely deleted or anonymized.

7. Rights of Data Subjects

You have the following rights regarding the processing of your personal data under the GDPR:

- Right to Information: You have the right to receive transparent information about how we process your personal data, free of charge.

- Right of Access: You may request confirmation as to whether your personal data is processed and obtain access to such data, including information on purposes, categories, recipients, retention periods, and your rights. You may request a copy; additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee.
- Right to Rectification: You may request the correction or completion of inaccurate or incomplete personal data at any time.
- Right to Erasure: You may request the deletion of your personal data where it is no longer necessary, where consent is withdrawn, where you object to the processing, where processing is unlawful, or where deletion is required by law.

- Right to Restriction of Processing: You may request restriction of processing in certain cases, including where accuracy is contested, processing is unlawful, data is no longer needed but required for legal claims, or an objection is pending.
- Right to Data Portability: You have the right to receive personal data you provided to us in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format and to transmit it to another controller.
- Right to Object: You may object at any time to the processing of your personal data based on your situation, unless we demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds.
- Withdrawal of Consent: Where processing is based on consent, you may withdraw your consent at any time.
- Right to Lodge a Complaint: You have the right to lodge a complaint with a competent supervisory authority.

8. Contact Details

We reserve the right to amend this Privacy Notice at any time. The version published in the TDBP website shall apply.

Information and Consent Regarding the Use of Trade Name and Logo

Turkish Dutch Business Platform (vereniging, registered in the Netherlands, hereinafter referred to as the "Association")

As part of its activities and for the purpose of showcasing its members and ensuring corporate visibility, the Association may use the trade names and logos of its founding members in the following contexts:

- at galas and similar events organized by the Association (including on screens, presentations, visual materials, social media posts, and similar communications); and
- on the Association's official website, under sections titled "Members" or similar headings, in a manner indicating the member's status as a founding member.

Consent

Use of a member's trade name and/or logo by the Association requires the member's prior express consent. During the membership application process, applicants will be directed to this policy via a hyperlink in the application form. By ticking the designated box on the application form, the applicant expressly consents to the use of its trade name and logo by the Association for the purposes specified above.

Consent is given freely, specifically, and on an informed basis. The Association will maintain a record of each member's consent as provided through the application process.

Scope of Use

The Association acknowledges that all use of members' trade names and logos shall be strictly for representational and informational purposes only and shall not be used for any commercial purpose, nor in any manner that could damage the reputation or interests of the member.

Withdrawal of Consent

A member may withdraw its consent at any time by providing written notice to the Association. Following receipt of such notice, the Association shall cease the use of the relevant trade name and/or logo within a reasonable period, not to exceed thirty (30) days, except where removal is not technically or practically feasible in the short term (e.g., printed materials already in circulation).

Contact

For questions or to submit a withdrawal of consent, members may contact the Association at info@tdbp.nl
